Method

1. In a large bowl, whisk together the flour, cornstarch, sugar, instant yeast, salt, cardamom powder, and milk powder.
2. Add the warm water and 1 tbsp of oil. Mix well until a smooth, thick, and sticky batter forms.
3. Cover the bowl with a clean cloth or plastic wrap and let it rest in a warm place for 1 to 1.5 hours, or until the dough has doubled in size and looks bubbly.
4. Fry the Luqaimat by heating 2-3 inches of oil in a deep pan or wok over medium heat to 350°F (175°C).
5. To shape the balls, dip a teaspoon in cold oil (to prevent sticking), then scoop a small amount of dough. Use your thumb to push the dough off the spoon into the hot oil. Alternatively, use a piping bag to squeeze out small balls.
6. Fry in batches, turning them constantly with a slotted spoon to ensure even, golden-brown colour (about 3-4 minutes).
7. Remove with a slotted spoon and drain on paper towels.
8. While still warm, place the fried dumplings in a bowl and drizzle generously with Capilano Pure Honey.
9. Toss to coat thoroughly, then sprinkle with sesame seeds or crushed pistachios.
10. Serve immediately.
